“Jim Curry’s Tribute to John Denver”

This is the same astounding and exacting concert John Denver himself one presented. Jim Curry possesses one of the most amazing likenesses and sound qualities of any tribute show working today. This show will include a member of John Denver’s band from time to time, that was known for writing one of John’s big hits called “Grandma’s Feather Bed”. The show is also accompanied by beautiful video images throughout , that the previous show did not have.

“Barnaby” & “Rhythm & Rhyme”
(A Double Bill)

“Barnaby” is one of the most unique physical entertainers on the scene today. With his off-the-wall sense of humor, crazy juggling and balancing stunts he keeps his audience laughing and astonished all at the same time. He is considered to be the number one novelty performer on Holland America Cruise Line.

“Rhythm & Rhyme” are Ray Templin and Rob Wright. These are two outstanding and gifted instrumentalists who keep their act versatile and highly entertaining. Their musical sense of humor and virtuosity will help to make this one of the most delightful evenings of happiness all season.

A DOUBLE-BILL OF ARIZONA ENTERTAINMENT

“THE ARIZONA TRIO”
(Folk Music Group)

“BRAD ZINN”
(Comedian, Impressionist, Magician)

A 90 minute show full of music, comedy and surprises.

“The Arizona Trio” & “Brad Zinn”
(A Double Bill)

“The Arizona Trio” performs in the great tradition of the Kingston Trio; The Limelighters and the New Christy Minstrels with the wonderful and familiar music of the “fold era”. This trio starts Mike Chamberlin (former sports caster for many years on Phoenix television); Gary Kotula; and Dave Woodruff. All well-known singers in the world of “folk”.

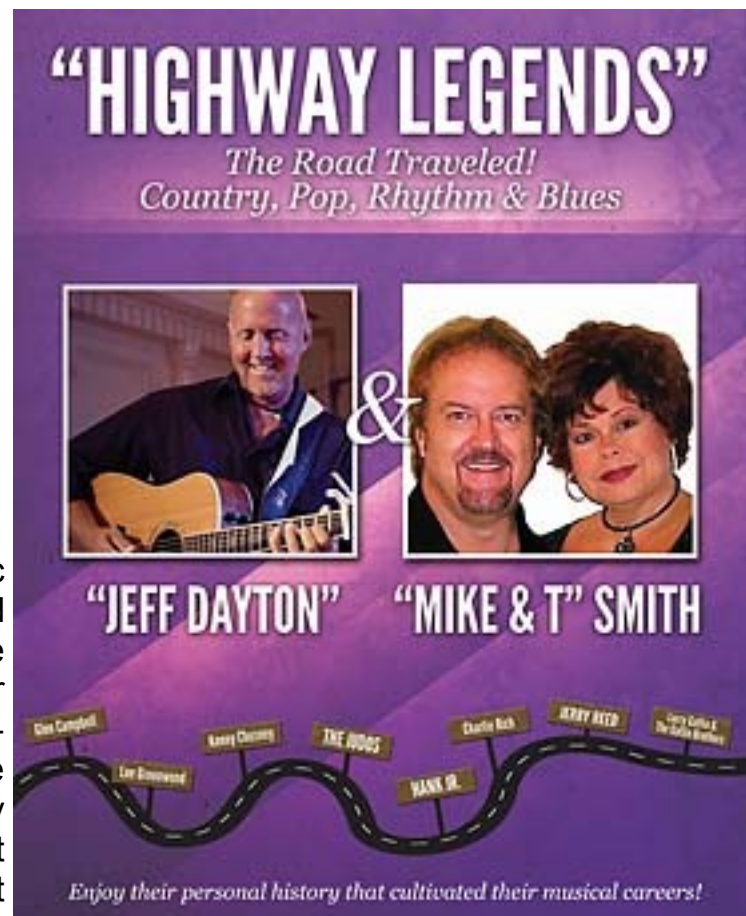

Brad Zinn formally known for his show “Tribute to the Great Comedians”. He will open the show with a delightful half-hour of comedy, impressions and magic. This will prove to be a completely different and entertaining act that he’s previously presented to the valley.

“Highway Legends”
Starring Jeff Dayton
(Formerly with Glen Campbell,
Lee Greenwood & Kenny Chesney)

“Mike & T”
(Formerly with Larry Gatlin &
The Gatlin Brothers, The Judds,
Hank Williams Jr., Charlie Rich, Jerry Reed)

This will be a four-person presentation of music and stories from these main-stream musicians and singers who traveled the nation with some of the most legendary super-stars of country music. For many years, these were the important people behind these major artists. It is most impressive when you hear the accounts of the responsibility these top-rated musical talents were in important concerts all over the world. This is a real insight into the world of big-time country music.

“These Three Tenors”
Starring Michael Crouse
Thomas Stallone
Rinaldo Toglia

We top off the season with the number one rated act in the history of this “Series”. In 2010 we first presented “These Three Tenors” to incredible rave reviews. These are three of New York City’s greatest voices. They drew a total of over 20,000 people to our shows in 2010. We were barraged by accolades such as “Magnificent”; “Thrilling”; Beautiful music”; “Superb voices”; and the best compliment of all: “Thank you for bringing such sensational entertainment to our community!”...Well, they are back.

“THESE THREE TENORS”
3 of New York City’s Greatest Voices.

With a vast and varied repertoire from operatic and Italian classics to the most current Broadway & Popular favorites... they thrill the audience from start to finish. You'll leave shouting "Bravo", "Encore" and repeating the highest honor... The standing "O".
